My dear Mr. Wood:-

At the suggestion of our mutual friend, Joe Chase, I write to ask if you could tell me at what price I could sell a set of the Panama-Pacific Exposition coins. I bought a complete set at the time of the Exposition. I think they came to me in a small case. They are in perfect condition I believe.

Thanking you for your kindness in this matter, I am

Very truly yours,

P. S. In case I decide to sell, perhaps you would suggest some dealer with whom I could do business.

Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

A complete set of Panama-Pacific Exposition coins is worth today a little over $209.00. I have a definite offer from someone here for $235. In looking up a few recent quotations, this seems to be about a mean average. If you want to sell your set, send it on and I can in all probability get you this price.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

I was able to see my party yesterday afternoon and sold him the coins which you left with me. I am enclosing, herewith, his cheque for $225.00.
Without seeing the Pike's Peak coin, I was unable to get any quotation. If you care to send this here,
I shall be glad to see what I can do for you.

Very truly yours,

Enc. Cheque $225.00

My dear Mr. Wood:-

I have Mr. Elder's cheque this morning for $225.00 in payment of the Panama-Pacific Exposition Coins. Thank you for the cheque and for your kindness in this matter.

In the near future I will hunt up that $2.50 piece--private mint.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Wood:-

Could you tell me where I might secure a specimen of the new coins recently issued by the Irish Free State. I wrote the Commissioner of the Irish Free State at Washington but received no reply.

I enclose stamped return envelope and shall appreciate any help you can give me in this matter.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

Gutttag Brothers, 16 Exchange Place,
New York City, got over a few weeks ago a number of proof sets as well as regular sets of the Irish Free State coinage. All the proof sets have been sold and possibly the regular sets. I would advise you to write them at once and see what you can do. If they have sold out, they undoubtedly will get some more sets, so there will only be a delay. I think they ask $2.50 for the regular sets.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

In this morning's mail I have received a circular from the Irish Free State Legation, stating that they now have sets of the coins in proof in green leather cases for $5.50 and in cardboard cases for $3.50 the set. Remittances should be made by certified cheque or money order to the Secretary of the Irish Free State Legation, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

At one time I sold you a set of Panama-Pacific coins. Would you kindly let me know approximately what a set would bring today if in fine condition and satisfactory in all ways.

Thanking you, I am,

Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

I have just been making inquiries as to the price to-day of a complete set of Panama-Pacific coins, and I find that it is $200. which you see is not different from the price at which they were issued.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

My Dear Mr. Wood:

Thank you for your note of January 3rd.

The price you have given me on the Panama-Pacific coins is sufficient for my purpose, and, with my kind regards,

I am,

Very truly yours,
